OUR MISSION

To proclaim and live the Good News of Jesus Christ by welcoming friend and stranger alike into our diverse and inclusive family of faith regardless of race, class, national origin, sexual orientation,
gender identity and expression,
or worldly condition of any kind
as we celebrate our gifts, work for justice,
peace, and a sustainable environment,
reach out in mission, and witness to God's transforming love.

Welcome!

Welcome to Market Square! We're so glad you're here to celebrate the installation of The Rev. Stan Jenkins as our next called and installed pastor. Restrooms are located just outside the sanctuary in the hallway. If you parked in the garage, our staff member with the parking ticket you'll need to exit is in the atrium (see instructions to the right). Please silence your devices as you enter the sanctuary and prepare for worship.

Parking Process

The church does not own the Market Square Garage but we pay for worship service parking. You will receive the first of two exit tickets when you press the button to enter the garage. Please do not misplace that first ticket; if you do, the garage will charge you a $32 lost ticket fee which is your responsibility to pay. In order to exit the garage at no cost to you, you must obtain a second ticket with the number 2 written on it. At the exit machine, wait until the gate is down, then insert the ticket you received when entering the garage, bar code facing up. When the machine asks for payment, insert the ticket you received from the church, bar code up. If you have any problem, press the telephone icon on the exit gate machine and tell the call center representative that you are at the Market Square Garage and your validated exit ticket is not working. For a video on how to park, scan the QR code, click here or go to our YouTube channel.

ANTHEM

I Was Glad

Psalm 122, text
Charles Hubert Parry (1848 – 1918), music

I was glad, glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord.
Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem.
Jerusalem is builded as a city that is at unity in itself.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem, they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Here I Am, Lord

Isaiah 6, text
Daniel Schutte (b. 1947), music
Malcolm Archer (b. 1952), arranger

I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin my hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

*Here I am, Lord, is it I, Lord? I have heard You calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if You lead me. I will hold Your people in my heart.*

I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them. They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone, give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send?

I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them, my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them. Whom shall I send?

Cover Art

The images of Market Square Church's three buildings are from the church's archives. While founded in 1794 by members of Paxton Church, the English Presbyterian Congregation of Harrisburg worshiped in the loft of the city jail and later in the county court house until its first building was built at Second and Cherry streets. That building was enlarged once and then razed to make room for a new building on the same site. That building was destroyed by fire, and the present church was built on the edge of Market Square, from which it took its name.
