TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

MARKET SQUARE
Presbyterian Church

20 South Second Street ▪ Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

NOVEMBER 15, 2026 ▪ 11:00 A.M.

[The Kingdom of God] is also like a man going off on an extended trip. He called his servants together and delegated responsibilities. To one he gave five thousand dollars; to another, two thousand; to a third, one thousand, depending on their abilities. Then he left. Right off, the first servant went to work and doubled his master's investment. The second did the same. But the man with the single thousand dug a hole and carefully buried his master's money.

MATTHEW 25:14-16, "THE MESSAGE" VERSION

MARKET SQUARE
Presbyterian Church
A Beacon of Hope on the Square

OUR MISSION

To proclaim and live the Good News of Jesus Christ by welcoming friend and stranger alike into our diverse and inclusive family of faith regardless of race, class, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or worldly condition of any kind as we celebrate our gifts, work for justice, peace, and a sustainable environment, reach out in mission, and witness to God's transforming love.

Children's Ministry

Children of all ages are always welcome! There are two shelves in our Narthex (at the back of the Sanctuary) with sequin boards, crayons, markers, coloring sheets, and puzzles as well as a few library books that go along with the theme of the worship service. From September through Memorial Day, education for children K-6 is offered in the Children's Education Room (Level 4) immediately following the children's sermon (around 11:15 a.m.). Every Sunday, nursery care is available for children (infants through 5-year-olds) in the nursery on the fourth floor. The nursery is staffed by Sidney Dame, our nursery caregiver, and volunteers.

The Beacon Light

Want to stay in the loop? The Beacon Light is our weekly email that goes out every Wednesday, featuring sermon previews, upcoming events, music for Sunday worship, and updates on our church family and friends. To sign up, simply contact Nancy in the church office or you may do it through our website.

Parking Validation

Market Square Presbyterian does not own the garage but is pleased to subsidize parking for worshipers as our gift to you today. Parking validation is available in the atrium before you leave. Please have your license plate number ready to give to a staff member. The garage has a new procedure this year, and we want to make sure you get out smoothly!

Welcome, Visitors!

We're so glad you joined us for worship today! Please take a moment to fill out the yellow visitor card in your pew and place it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher. If you have any questions during your visit, our ushers are here to help. You'll find them at the back of the sanctuary wearing "Usher" name tags. They'd be happy to answer your questions, direct you to the restrooms or a drinking fountain, explain our parking arrangements, or help in any way they can. If you'd like to learn more about our community, the best place to start is our website at marketsquarechurch.org or our Facebook page at facebook.com/MarketSquareChurch.

Media & Privacy Notice

The church regularly uses photos, videos, and audio recordings of services and programs for printed materials, its website, and social media (Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube). Worship services and some events are livestreamed. Leaders (pastors, musicians, speakers, etc.) will appear on camera, and the backs of congregants' heads may be visible. If you prefer not to appear on camera, please sit on the right side (as you're facing the pulpit) near the wall and stained glass windows. During Communion, use the right-hand line, which is not on camera. Unless you tell us otherwise, the church assumes permission to use your photo or likeness. If you do not wish to be included, please contact the church office.

WE APPROACH GOD

TOLLING OF THE BELL

This week's readings are Psalm 90:1-8 and Matthew 25:14-30. In the Parable of the Talents, we consider what it means to be faithful stewards of the gifts entrusted to us. In "The Unsuspected Hero," Rev. Stan invites us to look more closely at the person we might least expect to find at the center of the story. We are glad you are worshiping with us today. This is holy ground.
Please take this opportunity to silence your electronic devices.

WELCOME — The Reverend Stanley J. Jenkins

VOLUNTARY — Adoro te Devote — Everett Titcomb (1884 – 1968)

CHORAL INTROIT — Lead Me, Lord — Samuel Wesley (1766 – 1837)

Lead me, Lord, lead me in Thy righteousness, make Thy way plain before Thy face.
For it is Thou, Lord, Thou, Lord only,
that makest me dwell in safety.

† CALL TO WORSHIP — Trustee Alice Anne Schwab

Leader: We lift up our eyes to the Lord!
People: Knowing our creator meets us in this time of worship.
Leader: We lift up our eyes to the Lord!
People: Trusting our redeemer to meet us with forgiveness and renewal.
Leader: We lift up our eyes to the Lord!
People: Relying on our sustainer to build us up for lives of love and service.
Leader: Let us worship together this day!

† PROCESSIONAL HYMN NO. 12 — Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise — ST. DENIO

† PRAYER OF CONFESSION — The Reverend Anne M. Ross

Loving God, you are generous in the many ways you have gifted us. We have so many blessings to be grateful for. Yet we are often motivated by fear, rather than our trust in you. We hold onto what we have, afraid we will never have enough. We become focused on protection rather than your call to welcome and love others. We see our blessings as our own, rather than seeing your care in each gift. Forgive us, God of grace. Forgive us and restore us to your vision for the world we pray.

† SILENT CONFESSION

† KYRIE

† ASSURANCE OF PARDON

† GLORIA

† PASSING OF THE PEACE

The Passing of the Peace is an ancient Christian practice, a reminder that before we go any further in worship, we turn to one another and declare: you are seen, you are welcome, you belong here.

Leader: The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

At this time, children in the congregation may make their way forward for the children's sermon.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

TIME WITH OUR CHILDREN

ANTHEM — It Is Well with My Soul

Romans 8:28 and Horatio Spafford (1828 – 1888), text
David Schwoebel (b. 1957), music

All things work, work for good.
All things work together for good for those who love God,
and are called according to his purpose.

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
when sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
"it is well, it is well with my soul."
It is well (all things work)
with my soul, (work for good)
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
and hath shed his own blood for my soul.
All things work, work for good.
All things work together for good for those who love God,
and are called according to his purpose.

My sin oh, the bliss of this glorious thought;
my sin not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross and I bear it no more,
praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!
It is well with my soul.
All things work together for good.
All things work together for good for those who love God,
and are called according to his purpose.

And, Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
the clouds be rolled back as a scroll,
The trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend,
"even so," it is well with my soul.
It is well (all things work)
with my soul (work for good).
It is well, it is well with my soul.
All things work together for good for those who love God,
and are called according to his purpose.

WE RESPOND IN FAITH

† RESPONSIVE HYMN NO. 453 Open Your Ears, O Faithful People YISRAEL V'ORAITA

† AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (From A Declaration of Faith)

In the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, God has already demonstrated his judging and saving work. We are warned that rejecting God's love and not caring for others whom God loves results in eternal separation from him and them. Yet we are also told that God loves the whole world and wills the salvation of all humankind in Christ. We live in tension between God's warnings and promises. Knowing the righteous judgment of God in Christ, we urge all people to be reconciled to God, not exempting ourselves from the warnings. Constrained by God's love in Christ, we have good hope for all people, not exempting the most unlikely from the promises. Judgment belongs to God and not to us. We are sure that God's future for every person will be both merciful and just. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY — Blessed Are Those Servants — Luke 12: 32, 37a, 40, text; David Hurd (b. 1950), music

Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes;
blessed are they!
For the Son of man is coming at an unexpected hour.
You must be ready.
Fear not, little flock,
for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
Alleluia!

"Wake, awake, for night is flying,"
the watchmen on the heights are crying,
"Awake, Jerusalem, arise!"
Midnight's solemn hour is tolling,
his chariot wheels are nearer rolling,
He comes; prepare, ye virgins wise.
Rise up, with willing feet go forth,
the Bridegroom meet: Alleluia!
Bear through the night your well-trimmed light,
speed forth to join the marriage rite.

† DOXOLOGY NO. 606 — Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow — OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

† PRAYER OF DEDICATION

† SENDING HYMN NO. 363 — Rejoice, the Lord Is King — DARWALL'S 148TH

† CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

† CHORAL RESPONSE

As we sing the first verse of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," you may notice people around you reaching for one another's hands. This is a simple sign of our unity in Christ. You're welcome to join hands, hold one another in prayer, or remain as you are, whatever feels comfortable to you.

Week 4: Market Square Matters Stewardship Campaign Update

Thank you to everyone who has submitted a pledge for 2027! During Week 4, we received four additional pledges, bringing our total to 81 pledges received to date. We are grateful for your continued generosity and support of Market Square's mission and ministry.

As Session and church leadership prepare the budget for the coming year, having an accurate picture of anticipated giving is an important part of the process. If you haven't yet submitted your pledge, we hope you'll take a few moments to do so as soon as possible.
You may submit your pledge in any of the following ways:

- Complete the online pledge form.
- Email your pledge to sheaffer@marketsquarechurch.org.
- Call Michelle at 717-257-1270 ext. 17.

If you do not anticipate making a financial pledge for 2027, we'd appreciate hearing from you as well. Every response helps us plan thoughtfully for the year ahead.

Thank you for being part of Market Square and for the many ways you contribute to the life and ministry of this congregation. Your generosity makes our work together possible!

Staff Notes

Rev. Allison is away this week for the PCUSA CREDO Conference in Little Rock, AR. She returns on November 19.

Online Advent Retreat: Seasons of Growth and Rest

This Advent, you're invited to explore a different kind of growth—one that requires intentional rest. In a work-obsessed culture, it's easy to forget that deep growth requires deep rest. We'll use the image of a tree throughout the season. Even in winter dormancy, trees are growing deep roots, unseen. We need seasons like that, too! Our online Advent retreat will include daily prayers, readings, and practices to help you step away from the holiday hustle and tend to your soul, spirit, and relationship with God. We'll also gather on Zoom each Sunday of Advent at 7 p.m. to pray, share, and reflect.

Please email Allison if you'd like to participate. The deadline to sign up is November 24.

Harvest Pie Sunday — November 22

Start your Thanksgiving week with pie and fellowship! Bring your favorite pie to share on Harvest Pie Sunday. A sign-up sheet is in the atrium, and pies should be dropped off before worship. If possible, please bring your pie already sliced and ready to plate. Our deacons will take care of the rest, and slices will be available following the 11 a.m. worship service. We hope you'll join us for this sweet start to Thanksgiving week!

Elevator Update

We are hopeful that the elevator will be back in service by Sunday, November 22! We expect to have a better idea of whether it will be ready for use by Thursday, November 19. While we can't make any guarantees just yet, we'll share an update as soon as we know more. Thank you for your continued patience!

Discerning Market Square's Homelessness Ministry

Following 11 a.m. worship on December 6, join us for a light lunch and a congregational conversation about how Market Square can continue to welcome and support our unhoused neighbors while caring for the needs of our entire church community.

As a Matthew 25 church, we are called to offer compassion and welcome. Together, we'll learn more about our current ministries, listen to one another, and share ideas about how we can balance compassion, safety, and respect for everyone who enters our doors.

Your voice matters! The ideas shared will help our Homelessness Task Force develop a plan for moving forward with consistency, care, and a commitment to our mission. We hope you'll join us!

Planning to attend? Please let Nancy know by email (sheets@marketsquarechurch.org) so we can get a head count for lunch and plan accordingly. We appreciate your letting us know in advance!

Volunteer for the Winter Overnight Shelter

Interested in volunteering with Christian Churches United's Winter Overnight Shelter? A volunteer orientation will be held on Monday, December 7, from noon to 1 p.m. at the Neighborhood Center, 1801 N. 3rd Street, Harrisburg. This is a great opportunity to learn more about the shelter and how you can help.

Signing up to volunteer is easy! Visit the volunteer calendar (https://www.ccuhbg.org/how-to-help/volunteer-calendar.html) to get started.

Volunteers are required to have clearances, but free background checks are available. If you're interested in volunteering, we can help you get the information you need. If you already have current clearances, you can simply submit those—no need to get new ones.

French Catholic missionary François Vidil worked with Mafa (an ethnic group) Christian communities in Cameroon to create an enormous catalogue of paintings depicting the life of Jesus as an African man. The plan was to build a resource that would help Mafa people to teach from the Bible in a way that connects with their community.

Music This Week

Good morning! Today is the twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost and the opening voluntary is by Everett Titcomb, an American composer and church musician, who was particularly known for his contributions to sacred choral music. Adoro te devote is a musical setting of the beloved Latin hymn traditionally attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas. The text expresses profound reverence for Christ's presence in the sacrament, inviting us into an attitude of humility, devotion, and wonder.

Our processional hymn is "Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise," and its text was written by Scottish minister and poet Walker Chalmers Smith (1824 – 1908). The hymn celebrates majesty, mystery, and the eternal nature of God. Drawing upon imagery of light, glory, and creation, the hymn reminds us that although God is beyond human sight and understanding, God's presence and wisdom are revealed throughout the world. The familiar Welsh folk melody St. Denio provides a stately and uplifting setting for this text, inviting us to join in praise of our immortal and invisible God.

Probably one of the most beloved hymns of the Christian faith, It Is Well with My Soul was written by Horatio G. Spafford in 1873 following a series of profound personal tragedies. Despite experiencing tremendous loss, Spafford penned words that express a remarkable faith and trust in God's sustaining presence, even in the midst of life's deepest sorrows. David Schwoebel brings a renewed expression to the hymn's timeless message: that even when life is filled with uncertainty and hardship, we can find peace in the assurance of God's abiding love. He beautifully weaves the text from Romans 8:28 reminding us that all things work together.

Our responsive hymn, "Open Your Ears, O Faithful People," draws upon the Jewish tradition of the Shema, the ancient call to hear and faithfully respond to God's Word. The text, written by Episcopal priest and hymn writer Willard F. Jabusch (1930 – 2018), invites us to listen attentively to God's teachings and to carry them into our daily lives through faithful living and service. Set to the traditional Israeli melody Yisrael V'oraita, the hymn offers a lively and memorable musical expression of the call to hear, learn, and follow God's ways.

David Hurd's Blessed Are Those Servants draws its inspiration from Jesus' teaching in Luke 12, calling believers to remain watchful and ready for the coming of Christ. The text reminds us of the blessing promised to those whom the Lord finds faithful and prepared. Hurd enriches this setting by incorporating the beloved Advent chorale Wachet auf (Wake, Awake, for Night if Flying), weaving its familiar hymn melody into the musical fabric of the anthem. This connection reinforces the theme of spiritual watchfulness and joyful celebration, as the choir's proclamation of Christ's coming is joined with one of the church's great musical expressions of hope and expectation.

Our sending hymn, "Rejoice, the Lord Is King," written by Charles Wesley (1707 – 1788), one of the founders of the Methodist movement, celebrates the kingship, resurrection, and ultimate victory of Jesus Christ. Originally published in 1744, the text calls the faithful to rejoice in Christ's reign and to look forward with hope to his promised return. The tune Darwall's 148th, composed by English clergyman John Darwall (1731 – 1789), provides a spirited and majestic musical setting. Together, the text and tune offer a joyful proclamation of Christ's sovereignty and the invitation for all creation to join in praise.

Johann Gottfried Walther was a German composer, organist, and contemporary of Johann Sebastian Bach, with whom he shared both a family connection and a close musical friendship. Walther was particularly known for his organ transcriptions of Italian instrumental concertos, adapting the vibrant orchestral style of composers such as Antonio Vivaldi for the keyboard. The first movement, Allegro, captures the energetic spirit of the Italian concerto tradition, with lively rhythms, contrasting musical ideas, and a sense of dialogue between instrumental voices. Through its spirited character and rhythmic drive, the movement showcases the organ's ability to evoke the brilliance and excitement of an entire orchestra.

Music next week – Next Sunday is Christ the King and the Sanctuary Choir will sing "The Kingdom" by André Thomas and "Crown Him with Many Crowns" by Dan Forrest. The hymns for the morning will be, "Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven," "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," and "Lead On, O King Eternal!" We will be joined by a brass sextet and percussion so I hope you'll join us in celebrating the reign of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise 12

The opening line of this hymn was inspired by the three divine attributes listed in 1 Timothy 1:17 (King James Version), and it continues by considering how God's life exceeds our own finite existence. The text is well set to a Welsh melody shaped by many three-note units.

Open Your Ears, O Faithful People 453

In the writings of the prophets, the ear is valued above other senses, and the essential declaration of Jewish faith is shema Ysrael, "Hear, O Israel" (Deuteronomy 5:1, 6:4–9; Jeremiah 2:4). "To hear" is no small thing, for this verb assumes what is truly heard will also be obeyed.

Rejoice, the Lord Is King! 363

Descant

Each stanza of this enthronement text prepares for the final line of the refrain, based on Philippians 4:4. "Lord" is here a title of Christ rather than a reference to the undivided Trinity. The late 18th-century tune (first used with Psalm 148) captures the mood well.
